MEMORANDUM FOR: MAIL FILE OF PETRO PANOMARENKO, PL-489

SUBJECT: Cover Story for Mail Handling

1. Cover story arrangements made in the field:

a. Subject told his "boss" and immediate friends that he was leaving for Munich to find a job with the Americans. Thus, all of his mail will have to be handled through Munich.

b. Holding area report: Nothing pertinent to cover and mail situation.

2. Discussion of cover story and agreement reached:

a. Subject corrected the holding area report by pointing out that he did not tell his "boss" and friends that he was leaving for Munich, because he already was in Munich. He stated he was going from Munich to Frankfurt to find a job with Americans. Therefore, the advice given in the holding area report that a Munich return address would have to be furnished is in error.

b. He wrote to an uncle in Maplewood, New Jersey from the holding area; also, to a cousin in Newark, New Jersey and a brother-in-law in Amsterdam, New York. He told them he had left his previous job in Ludwigsburg and had gone to Frankfurt to work for the Americans.

c. He will continue writing to the above three; also, to a friend in Buffalo, New York; to a friend in Australia and to a family in Ludwigsburg with whom he lived. He will have little correspondence with the German family.

d. He will continue using the same story. He will keep his connection with the Americans vague.
